

Confirmation of place of residence for the purchase of the GA Travelcard Familia and GA Travelcard for Duos.

A confirmation of place of residence is needed by all those above the age of 16 who are part of a joint GA Travelcard.

- Please fill in the boxes below and confirm with your signatures that all those involved live in the same household. Important: for the certification, the residents' registration office requires the signature of all persons involved.
- You can then have the form certified by the residents' registration office of your commune of residence. To do so, you will need an official ID.
- The confirmation provided by the residents' registration office cannot be older than 30 days.
- The fee for the confirmation of residence is determined by the commune.
- First purchase of a GA Travelcard: hand in the stamped confirmation of place of residence together with your GA Travelcard order.
- Subsequent purchases of a GA Travelcard: upload the stamped confirmation of residence in the 'Travelcards' section of swisspass.ch, send it to us by post or submit it at a staffed point of sale.
- You can find an overview of all the evidence required at swisspass.ch/documents.

What evidence do you need to provide?

If you wish to benefit from the preferential terms of a GA Travelcard Familia or a GA Travelcard for Duos, certain evidence is required.

The following overview shows you what evidence is required for the first purchase and for subsequent purchases.

For the first purchase of a GA Travelcard Familia or a GA Travelcard for Duos, the following additional documents are required:

- A copy of the passport or ID of the person travelling and of the other contracting party.
- A copy of the basic GA Travelcard (page with photo).

1 GA Travelcard Familia.

The offer is valid for families who live in the same household. If a parent has a basic GA Travelcard, the children can benefit from preferential terms for the GA Travelcard Familia for Children or for Youth. The first parent's basic GA Travelcard can be any of the following: GA Travelcard for Adults, GA Travelcard for Youth, GA Travelcard for 25 Year Olds, GA Travelcard for Seniors or GA Travelcard for Disabled Persons. The other parent can benefit from the GA Travelcard Familia for Adults as long as one parent has the basic GA Travelcard and at least one child has the GA Travelcard for Children or for Youth. Under certain conditions, blended families, families with separate residences and other family structures can also benefit from the GA Travelcard for the whole family.

We require the following evidence:

GA Travelcard Familia for Children.

	Family/same-sex partnership certificate or a copy of the child's birth certificate		Confirmation of place of residence
